New Teacher’s Survival Guide to Behaviour

A one-day workshop, based on the popular book by Dr Sue Roffey, to ensure teachers feel confident, positive and equipped with practical strategies for surviving and thriving in the classroom.

This practical, engaging course with Dr Sue Roffey will:

- Explore alternative mindsets about students who are hard to manage, what is helpful and what isn’t
- Demonstrate the value of agency and giving students structured responsibility for the classroom environment
- Give you down-to-earth practical strategies for building positive relationships – especially with students who give you a hard time!
- Help you build a repertoire of emotionally literate responses when challenges occur
- Focus on your own wellbeing as critical to outcomes.

Expert facilitator

Sue Roffey

Sue is a psychologist, academic, author, activist and speaker. She is Associate Professor Western Sydney University (adjunct), an Affiliate of the Wellbeing Institute at Cambridge University, the founder and Director of Wellbeing Australia and a Director of Growing Great Schools. Sue’s many books including Changing Behaviour in Schools, Positive Relationships, and The New Teacher’s Survival Guide to Behaviour are popular with teachers worldwide. Sue has developed the Aboriginal Girls Circle – a program run under the auspices of NAPCAN. This is based on her Circle Solutions framework, a strengths and solutions-focused pedagogy for social and emotional learning.

www.sueroffey.com

One-day workshop

SYDNEY

Wednesday 6 April

Cost: $275 + GST per participant.
Includes morning tea and lunch.

Venue: To be confirmed, CBD Sydney

Book now!

Visit our website to enrol online at www.growinggreatschools.com
For more information call +61 2 9399 3989